1525. Adulteration of macaroni. U. S. v. 74 Cases and 20 Cases of Macaroni. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. D. C. No. 2340. Sample Nos. 7096-E, 7097-E.)

This product had been shipped in interstate commerce and was in interstate commerce at the time of examination, at which time it was found to be insect-infested. When such infestation occurred was not determined.

On July 22, 1940, the United States attorney for the District of Arizona filed a libel, and on October 26, 1940, an amended libel, against 94 cases of macaroni at Phoenix, Ariz., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about September 28 and October 12, 1939, by the Golden Gate Macaroni Co. from San Francisco, Calif.; and charging that it was adulterated in that it consisted wholly or in part of a filthy substance. The article was labeled in part: "Blue Diamond Brand Aristocratic Macaroni Products."

On January 18, 1941, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.

1526. Adulteration and misbranding of macaroni. U. S. v. 24 Cases of Macaroni. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. D. C. No. 3199. Sample No. 99028-E.)

Examination of this product showed that it was insect-infested. Moreover, it was short of the declared weight.

On October 15, 1940, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi filed a libel against 24 cases, each containing 48 boxes, of macaroni at Cleveland, Miss., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about August 15, 1940, by the National Food Products Co. from New Orleans, La.; and charging that it was adulterated and misbranded. The article was labeled in part: (Boxes) "Budget Brand Macaroni Net 6 Oz."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy substance.

It was alleged to be misbranded in that the labeling was false and misleading; and in that it did not bear an accurate statement of the quantity of contents.

On January 7, 1941, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.
